FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FADA to Hold Election of Electing State Chairpersons and Governing Council Members

AGM on 5th September to also see a Leadership Change with Mr Ashish Harsharaj Kale at the completion of his 2nd term handing over the Mantle to Mr Vinkesh Gulati, who takes over as the 35th President of FADA.

11th August'20, New Delhi: The Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA) for the first time will hold elections for electing State Chairpersons.

The candidate who wins will also represent his State in the decision making body of FADA, the National Governing Council. FADA is taking this step so that the members can elect the best candidate from the state to represent their issues.

This will also make the process of appointing Governing Council members more inclusive and democratic and anyone wanting to contribute to the progress of the dealership community stands an equal chance to do so. The voting process will be held online on FADA's website.

As the current President Mr Ashish Harsharaj Kale, MD – Provincial Automobile Co Ltd. completes his two years term on 4th September'20, President Elect, Mr Vinkesh Gulati, Partner – United Automobiles will take over as FADA's 35th President on 5th September'20 at FADA's 56th AGM which will be held virtually due to current pandemic.
